CAUSE

On May 5, 2009, a request for modifying conditions of supervision was submitted to the Court requesting Ms. Brown perform 20 hours of community service. This request was due to Ms. Brown having been cited on seven occasions for traffic violations, an obstruction of a public officer, and a harassment charge that was dismissed.

On October 9, 2009, a second request for modifying conditions of supervision was submitted to the Court requesting Ms. Brown perform 30 hours of community service. This request was due to Ms. Brown having been charged with shoplifting, Yakima Municipal Court cause number G00067401.

On March 10, April 9, and June 2, 2010, Ms. Brown was cited for speeding 10 miles per hour over the limit. On July 31, 2010, Ms. Brown was again cited for speeding 5 miles per hour over the limit. This officer has lectured Ms. Brown regarding her need to abide by the traffic laws. Ms. Brown recognizes the need slow down and how much this is costing her in fines.

Ms. Brown is currently working full-time at the In and Out Mini Mart, in Yakima, Washington. With the exception of the above noted traffic violations, her compliance with supervision is moderate. Ms. Brown has agreed to perform an additional 20 hours of community service at a local nonprofit organization as a consequence for her traffic violations to be completed by November 15, 2010.
